

This class is for enthusiastic, engaged readers and writers who have recently completed third, fourth or fifth grades. Students will be given the opportunity to explore their literacy interests as readers and writers and share their love of literacy with peers. Our camp will culminate with a literacy celebration on the last day.

Young Writers' and Readers' Camp 3-5 2017

JUNE 26-30
JULY 5-7
12:15-3:15 PM

$110
Registration
due by
May 1, 2017
(scholarships available)

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN OSHKOSH

GROWING WRITERS, READERS & LEADERS

OFFERED AT OAKLAWN ELEMENTARY

The Fox Valley Writing Project (University of Wisconsin, Oshkosh) is dedicated to the ongoing improvement of writing skills and instruction. All summer writing camp instructors have participated in the Fox Valley Writing Project.

Instructors:
Terri Smith
Jaclyn Cooper

REGISTER AT:
TERRI.SMITH@OSHKOSH.K12.WI.US
JACLYN.COOPER@OSHKOSH.K12.WI.US

A Typical Day At Camp

A typical day at camp starts with having some time to free write. You will be able to work on pieces that you have started or begin a completely new piece. Then we will talk about different topics about writing and try out new genres of writing such as poetry, narratives, graphic novels, or any other types of writing that we may want to explore.

We will take one longer piece of writing all the way through the writing process and publish an anthology. Each camper will get a copy of the anthology and will share their piece at the writing celebration on the last day.

