

Excerpt noting the power of time in the Summer Institute.

By Michelle Draves, Berlin

is an invitation to abandon the ordinary,
to notice what everyone
else missed,
see what only you can see,
implying that there is more than one path
and the one you
choose
has value.
Your voice matters.
There is someone,
even if that someone is just
you,
who needs to hear it.
See where the writing takes you...”*
